SUB-MARINE ATOM TO VIE WITH FREAKS OF NATURE

MUCH SPECULATION is being offered by scientists and military officials as to the appearance of the second atom bomb test, when a parcel of nuclear energy is detonated 18 feet below the waters of Bikini lagoon July 25. View from the air, the chief of the operations, predicts that waves will sweep 50 to 70 feet high, while others speculate a vertical gusher of water will rise from the sea. Just such a thing appears to be happening in the lower right photo, as a deadly waterpout drops from the sky, while right above is one of nature's own mountainous waves, not unlike what is forecast to come, when all ships within 50 miles of the blast area may be sunk; left, the first Bikini bomb. Probe Rebates of Optical Industry

WASHINGTON—The Justice department acted today to stop alleged rebates by optical firms to eye doctors—rebates the department said averaged one-half the price paid for spectacles.

Attorney General Tom C. Clark announced the filing in Chicago of two civil suits charging optical wholesalers and eye doctors with violating the Sherman Anti-Trust Act.

Clark said some doctors got as much as $40,000 a year in rebates. In each suit eye doctors doing business with the defendant optical firms were sued as a class. However, 51 doctors were specifically named as representative of the entire group charged with accepting the rebates.

Clark said the department had been informed that the rebating practice is industry-wide. The investigation eventually will cover all wholesale optical dispensers, he said.

RADIO TO SPARK UNDERWATER ATOM

Bikini lagoon, Marshall Islands. The atomic bomb test scheduled for July 25, 1946, will be the first of a series of tests to be conducted in the lagoon. The bomb will be suspended from a barge (2), and the last man to leave the lagoon will pull a switch on the barge and dash away on a speedboat. Two hours later, the radio will spark the explosion, after which a number of "drones" ships will be directed into the lagoon to test the water. (International)

Senate Nears OK on GI Terminal Pay
WASHINGTON — The Senate moved today a vote today on the $1,000,000,000 GI terminal leave pay bill, described by Sen. Joseph H. Ball, R. Minn., as "just a bonus in disguise."

Under the measure backed by President Truman, discharged servicemen would receive, five-year federal bonds carrying 3% per cent. interest in payment for furloughs they didn't get.

Sen. Edwin C. Johnson, D. Cal., sponsor of the bill, told reporters it would wipe out "favorite" show: discharged officers who have received cash payments. He predicted the bill would be passed by the Senate today.

Ball offered amendments that would force deduction of maturing

 Mich., at the Senate's inquiry into how the Garsons-Murray and Henry-waughed $750,000 worth of mortar shell contracts.
 "Oh, absolutely not," cried Raymond Martin, the wedding photographer, who took the pictures you probably saw in the papers last week. "I would not do such a thing."

THE EVIDENCE SHOWED that while civilians cooled their heels at the ticket office, the generals, the colonels and one Albert Jacobson, a one-time attorney working for the War department, rode to the wedding in style.
 They had orders to go to New York on business of the chemical warfare service, under the signature of one of the celebrating generals. The Army gave 'em a per diem allowance and, of course, paid their train fare.

MAJ. TIMOTHY K. Williams, a baldish individual in the chemical warfare branch, identified the travel orders. They showed that the War department regarded the wedding either as chemical warfare development or administration.
 "Fake orders," commented Sen. Reed. That was only the beginning. The committee had copies of the hotel bills to the Army's brass. Notations indicated that the Garson boys paid the room rent of the visiting officers.

In Memoriam

RICKLE—In loving memory of my darling husband, Leo K. Rickle, who passed away one year ago today, July 24, 1945.

No one knows how much I miss you. No one knows how much I miss you. I have suffered, since I lost you. Life has never been the same. In my heart, your memory lingers. Sweetly, tender, fond and true. There is not a day, dear Leo, that I do not think of you. I often sit, and think of you. No eyes to see me weep. Still deep within my aching heart your memory, I shall keep. Many the years, we spent. How sweet their memory still. The whole world cannot fill. The rolling stream of life flows on. And still your vacant chair. Recalls the love, the voice, and smile.

Of you, who once at three. Days of sadness still come over me. Tears in silence, often flow. Memory keeps you, ever near me. And my loss, no one can know. Though your smile has gone forever.

And your hand, I cannot touch. I never lose sweet memories. Of the one, I loved so much. Some may think I have forgotten. When, at times they see me smile. Little do they know the heartache. That my smiles hide all the while.

Your lonely heart is sore. Margaret Rickle

In memory of Ella Johnson. Dear beloved one year ago today. You had to leave me here alone. I stay.

Its been very hard without you. But have tried the way you like me to.

When I look at your empty chair. I try to understand you can't be there. You are at your heavenly home to rest. Only our Saviour knows it was the best.

It was a hard time for you and I. All the long days and nights you were here. I often think now hard it was for you.

So many things you would like to do. But you were always cheerful at heart. And would try your best to do you part.

So now will have to try another year. To carry on the way, if you were here. Albert Johnson

In loving memory of our beloved father and grandfather who passed away one year ago today, July 24. A precious one from us is gone. A voice we love is stilled. A place is vacant in our hearts. Which never can be filled.

In our lonely hours of thinking. Thoughts of him are ever near. We who loved him sadly miss him. As it dawns another year.

Days of sadness still come over us. Tears in silence often flow. For memory keeps him always near us. And the loss no one can know.

Friends may think we have forgotten. When at times they see us smile. Little do they know the heartache. That our smiles hide all the while. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cavanaugh and family. Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Davis and family.

 Another hot, dry week. That's what it's like here. But Sunday was more or less local. Hardly a drop fell south of town. This kind of weather really does rub hot with a car. Keep the crankcase of your auto filled to the brim with good oil—like Dynalene yet?

The kiddies around town sure had loads of fun at their playground scavenger hunts Monday night. If some of our oldsters could pick into something like that and have as much fun... wouldn't this be a great life!

The motorcycle races Sunday should draw a good crowd. If you have never seen one before, make it a point to do so. There will be thrills and excitement galore.

See Beasler's gift shop is really coming along. Probably won't be too long before she opens her doors to the public. Nielsen's jewelry store is progressing nicely also. Good luck to both of you.

Until next Wednesday when we will spread a little more "hot air".

SCHEDULE
TONIGHT—Green Parrot vs Consumers, Diamond No. 1; Harvard vs Owen's Drugs, Diamond No. 2.
THURSDAY—Gibson vs Federal-Mogul.

Owen's Drugs climbed back within one game of the leading Green Parrots in the Greenville Softball league Tuesday night when they handed Gibson its third straight defeat, 8-2. The game was a makeup of a postponement of July 5, and by losing it, the Refrigerators sank deeper into fourth place.

In tonight's tilt the hot Consumers outfit will attempt to hand the league leaders their second defeat of the season behind the brilliant pitching of Arthur (No-Hit) Kersjes. Kersjes has allowed one run in 21 innings, and on his good arm ride the hopes of a Consumer victory and another step toward first place.

Veteran Hose Sutherland will probably start for the Parrots. If Kersjes is in top form, the result is a toss-up.

Owen's will take on the improved Harvard clan. The Drugists are determined to hang up a victory so as to be in a position to tie the Parrots should the pace-setters lose.

In Tuesday's game, Manager Frank Holdeman, on the mound for Gibson, deserved a much better fate than the result indicates. Although touched for 11 hits, only one Druggist run was earned. The factory nine made eight errors, five of them contributing to the scoring.

Owen's split the game away with five hits in the first frame. Gaylord Fisher walked but was forced at second by C. E. Kress. Fritz Puffpuff was safe on Frank Giglio's error at short. Kress and Puffpuff scored when Bob Hyde dropped Pete Nelson's fly in center field. Frank Weber singled. Cliff Roche forced Weber, Nelson taking third. Harold Weber singled, scoring Nelson. Roche and Weber scored when Oren Wood dropped Kurt Becker's fly in right field.

Gibson scored its only runs in the same frame. Giglio and Don Kellogg singled and John Griffith walked. Tom Griffith forced Giglio at the plate. Puffpuff to Fisher. L. D. Sewell forced Tom Griffith at second, Kellogg scoring. John Griffith scored when Roche made successive errors on balls hit by Hyde and Ray Peterman.

Becker, Owen's hurler, pitched hitless ball from the first until the seventh, when Giglio got his second hit.

Kellogg sparked in the field for the losers, accepting 10 chances without an error. Fisher had a perfect day at the plate with two singles and a double in three official trips. Giglio had two of Gibson's three hits in four trips.

Rigney Stops Ted Williams, Beats Red Sox in Opener

By CARL LUNDQUIST
 (United Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK—The Boston Red Sox, who dropped seven out of nine games at the start of their last western road trip, got off to a bad debut again this time at Chicago, dropping a 7 to 1 decision to Johnny Rigney of the White Sox who held them to five hits, blanking league leading batter Ted Williams. The victors made five runs in the first inning, teeing off on Bill (Zam Zam) Zuber, who had won three straight for Boston since being waived away by the Yankees. Thurman Tucker hit a homer in the big inning.

THE YANKEES missed a chance to gain by dropping an 8 to 2 decision at St. Louis, remaining 11½ games back. Marius Russo, making his second start after being plagued by arm trouble, was no puzzle to the Browns. However, four errors, two by rookie first baseman Steve Souchock, helped bring about his downfall. The Browns made 14 hits, Chuck Stevens, Chet Laabs, and Mark Christman getting three each.

ALLIE REYNOLDS turned in his top job of the season for the Indians, blanking the Philadelphia Athletics, 2 to 0 on three hits at Cleveland. A double by Hank Edwards and a single by Heinz Beckner gave him all the help he needed in the first inning. All of the National league games were rained out.

Newhouser Hangs Up 19th Victory

By United Press

DETROIT—The pitching assignment fell to Paul (Dizzy) Trout today as the Detroit Tigers met Washington in the second game of a series which got off to a roaring start Tuesday with Hal Newhouser besting the Senators 6-1 for his 19th victory of the season.

The voluble Bobo Newsom reportedly was Manager Ossie Bluege's choice to oppose Trout. Both hurlers have lost eight games this season, while Trout has the edge in the win column with eight victories as compared with Newsom's six.

Newhouser held Washington to five hits, struck out nine—and yielded but two walks in chalking up his 15th victory in 16 starts against the Nats over the past three seasons.

He might have had a shutout but for an error that allowed Gil Coan to reach base in the eighth. Coan was safe on a bunt when Greenberg muffed Newhouser's throw, and later scored Washington's only run when Buddy Lewis doubled to left center.

Hal started the game as if he didn't intend to waste any pitches. He threw seven straight strikes, fanning Coan and Lewis and getting one past Gerry Priddy before tossing a wide one.

In addition to Newhouser's personal triumph, there was consolation for the Tigers in knocking Emil (Dutch) Leonard out of the box. A Tiger nemesis of long standing, Leonard had beaten Detroit in eight of nine previous attempts.

A nine-hit Tiger attack, paced by George Kell's three singles, chased Leonard from the mound after seven innings with Detroit ahead 4-0. The Bengals picked up two more runs and another pair of hits off his successor, Marino Pieretti. It was a bad day for Washington's
